Goliath

This gentle giant finds his 'forever' home

Above: Goliath at the backyard watering hole. Beardie, Libby, and Goliath have things covered coming and going. A group of Rescuers and their dogs meet for breakfast regularly (Allyson, Ken, Libby and Goliath to the left).

Allyson & Ken: to the rescue

Allyson Warr and Ken Poole, adopters of Goliath, have experienced Bouviers in all aspects of the fancy including the conformation rings early on. The Rescue Staff is pleased to have Goliath adopted by an experienced couple who will make the most of a 'forever' home for their two dogs.
